

John 6: 56-69

⁵⁶ Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. ⁵⁷ I live because of the living Father who sent me; in the same way, anyone who feeds on me will live because of me. ⁵⁸ I am the true bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will not die as your ancestors did (even though they ate the manna) but will live forever.”

⁵⁹ He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

Many Disciples Desert Jesus

⁶⁰ Many of his disciples said, “This is very hard to understand. How can anyone accept it?”

⁶¹ Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining, so he said to them, “Does this offend you? ⁶² Then what will you think if you see the Son of Man ascend to heaven again? ⁶³ The Spirit alone gives eternal life. Human effort accomplishes nothing. And the very words I have spoken to you are spirit and life. ⁶⁴ But some of you do not believe me.” (For Jesus knew from the beginning which ones didn’t believe, and he knew who would betray him.) ⁶⁵ Then he said, “That is why I said that people can’t come to me unless the Father gives them to me.”

⁶⁶ At this point many of his disciples turned away and deserted him. ⁶⁷ Then Jesus turned to the Twelve and asked, “Are you also going to leave?”

⁶⁸ Simon Peter replied, “Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words that give eternal life. ⁶⁹ We believe, and we know you are the Holy One of God.”

Thought for Sunday 22nd August 2021
12th Sunday after Trinity

Dear Friends, by way of a change I thought we would look at our Old Testament reading this week which is taken from the book of Joshua, who as we will all remember has a claim to fame for fighting the ‘Battle of Jericho’!

Joshua is one of the ‘Super Heroes’ of the Bible. He is also along with other so called ‘J-shaped’ people i.e. Joel, Jacob, Joseph, Jonah, Job, Jeremiah, and Jesus himself of course, part of God’s wonderful plan for humankind. ‘J- shaped’ people are the people used by God to help that plan come to fruition.

In the passage we read how absolutely resolute Joshua is about wanting to serve his Lord. He’s not concerned if others want to serve various other gods but he and his house will serve the Lord, he says determinedly.

What Joshua does do is to challenge the people to make up their minds which god they are going to serve.

When faced with this question and no doubt influenced by Joshua’s own strong faith and determination they decided it was right to serve the Lord who, among other things, had brought them out of Egypt, out of slavery and had protected them on their journey.

I wonder if you have been influenced, in matters of faith that is, by any particular people that you can remember.

Sometimes it can be a ‘Pillar of Faith’ we have met along our journey of life. Or perhaps it may have been through a kind act that we have seen or experienced being carried out, especially if we know that person to have been a Christian.

Above all when faced with any type of dilemma in our faith, may we always choose the right path and guided and strengthened in our decisions by those we know and trust to have followed the right path themselves.

There are J- shaped people around still today, but of course their names don’t all start with a ‘J’. Can you think of one?

We should all look out for them for they can always help us follow the correct path.

Many Blessings
Jim
